

Whereas, as the 2006-2007 school year draws to a close, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to applaud the career achievements of those individuals who are retiring from the field of education; and

Whereas, the School of the Osage R-II School District is losing a valuable member of its faculty with the retirement of Cynthia Kay "Cindy" Hart who has devoted thirty years of her life to the education of this state's young citizens through tireless endeavors as an educator; and

Whereas, Cindy Hart has taught for eighteen years at School of the Osage, where she is held in high esteem as an educator who demonstrates considerable competence and remarkable degrees of compassion and understanding; and

Whereas, deeply committed to the great cause of learning, Cindy Hart taught in the Eldon R-I School District prior to assuming her responsibilities as School of the Osage, where she served as a special educator and high school academic team coach prior to assuming her responsibilities as Special Education Process Coordinator; and

Whereas, Cindy Hart has watched her pupils grow, develop, and mature through the knowledge she has imparted to them both as a teacher and as a friend; and

Whereas, the recipient of numerous awards and recognitions, Cindy Hart has supported her profession as a member of the Missouri State Teachers Association, Central Region, of which she has served as Secretary/Treasurer; the Missouri Advisory Council for Certification of Educators; the Osage Teachers Association; and the Missouri National Board for Professional Teaching Standards, of which she is a charter member; and

Whereas, Cindy Hart has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include her husband of thirty-two years, Norman Hart; three children, Scott Hart, Derrick Hart, and Robbie Hart; one grandchild, Drew Austin Hart; and her parents, Robert and Lee Prouty:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join the School of the Osage R-II School District in expressing appreciation for the unparalleled service that Cindy Hart has rendered to Missouri's children and in wishing her the long, fruitful, and enjoyable retirement that she so justly deserves; and
